Truman Declares U. S. Emergency

Nation Placed On Virtual War Basis By Action

Defense Program Will Be Greatly Speeded At Once

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—President Truman today proclaimed a national emergency and created the Office of Defense Mobilization to place the nation on a virtual war basis to meet the "great" danger of a general Soviet attack.

Mr. Truman signed the national emergency proclamation at 10:20 a.m. (EST). This action was followed within minutes by an executive order creating the super agency to supervise the nation's mobilization program. The ODM will be headed by Charles E. Wilson, president of General Electric.

Move Necessary
The emergency proclamation declared the move was necessary to meet "the increasing menace of the forces of Communist aggression."

In the document, imperialism charged Communist imperialism with designs for "world conquest" and said U. S. defense forces must (Continued on Page Two)

PA NEWS OBSERVES
Pupils of the New Castle city schools will begin Christmas vacation on Thursday, December 21, at 2:30 in the afternoon. Vacation will come to an end on Tuesday, January 2, when classes will be held as usual.

Disappointed faces were registered on many parcel post patrons at the post office on Friday as they were turned away with packages intended for residents of distant cities whose town is on the embargo list.

The local area must have been in a special snow belt of its own the past few days. Motorists traveling in from Youngstown, report that not nearly as much snow was observed in that area on Friday as was found here. Another motorist coming from Franklin reported Friday afternoon that no snow was seen there and the travelers were surprised upon reaching this area to find so much snow.

Butchering is under way in several sectors of the county. Old-fashioned country sausage and fresh pork steaks will be gracing local tables in the near future. Not too many of the local farmers engage in the occupation but depend on meat packers to take care of their surplus pork.

One motorist from Ohio bore a disgusted look Friday evening when he was informed that his rear tire was flat. The motorist had to first remove his chain and then remove the deflated tire before the spare could be put in position. The task is not too pleasant an experience in good weather, let alone with snow on the ground.

Various orphan youngsters and those confined to hospitals over Christmas will not be forgotten again this year. If various civic organizations and clubs have their way, plans are being made to treat these youngsters royally with goodies and many gifts to make them feel as though they are appreciated even though away from home.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Truman addressed the nation from the White House Friday night to tell the public what our country is up against and what we are going to do about it.

Highlights Of President's Warning Address To Nation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—Here are the highlights of President Truman's speech to the nation in which he explained "the grave danger" facing us and what will be done about it.

Mr. Truman said he would issue a proclamation of national emergency today.

Thereafter he will:
1. Set up an overall office of defense mobilization under General Electric President Charles E. Wilson to have charge of manpower, economic stabilization, procurement and transportation.

2. Start the build-up of the armed forces to 3,500,000 men, multiplying present plane production five times and tank and artillery production four times.

3. Impose immediate price controls on many materials and products essential to defense or affecting the cost of living.

4. Take steps to stabilize wages and set up "fair standards" for prices and wages in those cases where mandatory ceilings are not imposed immediately. Mr. Truman said violations will be met by compulsory controls, including wage-price rollbacks where needed.

5. Create an arsenal "for the defense of freedom" to arm other free nations.

6. Order two additional National Guard Divisions to active duty in January (four have already been called) and speed up manpower procurement through the draft.

7. Ask Congress to approve heavy new taxes to put the increased cost of defense as nearly as possible on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Another Of Most Wanted Criminals Is Under Arrest
MADISON, Wis., Dec. 16.—(INS)—Morris Guralnick, second of the nation's "10 most wanted criminals" to be captured in two days, was taken into custody today in Madison where he was seized after a brief but savage fight with four law officers.

Three Madison policemen helped an FBI agent subdue the 34-year-old New Yorker who once bit off the finger of a police officer who sought to arrest him.

Guralnick will be arraigned before a U. S. Commission on federal warrants charging him with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

The fugitive had been sought since July 11, 1948, when he and four other inmates of the Kings County Jail slugged their guards with ripped out plumbing fixtures and escaped.

He was awaiting trial for stabbing a former girl friend in a Marlboro, N. Y. tavern when he escaped.

Wildcat Rail Strike Ending; Strikers Return

Expect Partial Embargo On Mail Can Be Lifted

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—Striking railroad workers are returning to work today after a direct appeal by President Truman and the Post Office Department is preparing to lift its partial embargo on Christmas mail.

Crews of switchmen reported back in operating strength at the Chicago and Washington terminals. However, rail tieups were still reported in Birmingham, Nashville and Knoxville, Tenn.

A post office spokesman indicated that the embargo on parcel post mail may be lifted shortly. He said the department is getting reports from its divisions throughout the nation and is "very anxious" to remove the ban.

Directs Return To Work
W. P. Kennedy, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, directed the "wildcat" strikers early this morning to report for work on a promise that "a settlement is in sight."

And end of the walkout eliminates the log-jam created at struck points on 18 lines which has held up tons of vital supplies for the Korean War effort and mountains of Christmas mail and packages.

In Chicago, a 26-car "solid mail" train bound for the west coast was one of the first to pull out in restored service.

But in Nashville, Tenn., 150 switchmen failed to report at the Louisville & Nashville road's Radnor yards, halting freight service. Southern Railway yards in Knoxville, Tenn., were moving only one-tenth of normal traffic with only three of 30 switchmen reporting for duty.

Postmaster General Gives Order Today

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—The railroad strike ended today and the postoffice department immediately lifted its embargo on Christmas mail and packages.

Postmaster General Donaldson issued orders at 11 a. m. EST instructing all postmasters to resume normal mail service at once and make every effort to get packages to their destination by Christmas.

Donaldson told newsmen that the tremendous backlog of mail which has piled up in key cities the last few days "should be moving by tonight."

Republicans Seek Acheson Dismissal

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—President Truman today had before him a demand from congressional Republicans for the dismissal of State Secretary Acheson in the interests of bipartisan unity on foreign affairs.

The GOP lawmakers ignored a charge by Senator Majority Leader Lucas (D) Ill., that they are "playing into the hands of Stalin" by demanding that Acheson be ousted.

Senate Republican leader Wherry, of Nebraska, and Millikin, of Colorado, let the Democratic leader's bitter castigation of their action go unanswered. Both declined to comment.

Pulaski Woman Injured In Fall
Mrs. Belinda Blue, aged 87 years, of Pulaski, was admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital at 9 p. m., Friday, for treatment of injuries sustained when she fell down a flight of stairs in her home.

Mrs. Blue suffered general contusions and a fracture of the left collarbone.

Three Killed In Bus-Auto Collision Near Bedford, Ky.
WILLIAMSPORT, Ky., Dec. 16.—(INS)—Kentucky State Police today identified three persons killed in a head-on collision of an auto and a Greyhound bus which injured 21 others last night near Bedford, Ky., on U. S. Route 42.

Dead were James C. Chastain of Nashville, Tenn., John T. Shihers, and Richard O. Meadows, 40, both of Detroit. All three were passengers in the car.

Police said the driver of the Louisville-Cincinnati-Detroit bus, Robert Foley of Madison Place near Cincinnati, was in serious condition while 20 passengers received only minor injuries.

NEW YORK—Charles E. Wilson, head of the General Electric Co., has been given the job of running the defense mobilization program by appointment by President Truman.

Million Will Go Into Uniform In Coming Year

By DARRELL GARWOOD
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—One million Americans will go into uniform next year and almost another million will be called up in 1952 under President Truman's program to meet the "grave danger" of Soviet aggression.

As an initial step in troop mobilization, two National Guard Infantry divisions are being alerted today for active service Jan. 16. They are the 31st (Alabama-Mississippi) and 47th (Minnesota-North Dakota).

Mr. Truman set the military manpower goal at about 3.5 million men with personnel drawn from the National Guard, Reserves and an accelerated draft rate.

Red Leader In Italy To Leave For Russia Soon

ROME, Dec. 16.—(NSI)—Italian communist leader Palmiro Togliatti said today that he is leaving Rome soon for Moscow to undergo medical treatment.

Rome observers, however, believe it more likely that his visit is for indoctrination in the latest lines of Soviet world strategy.

Togliatti said: "My physicians have prescribed a long period of convalescence. I am unable to obtain this in Italy. While I am here Italian political developments make it impossible for me to remain out of active touch with my party."

Togliatti said he will be in Russia for two or three weeks.

Congressmen's Views On Truman's Emergency Move

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—Congress rallied bipartisan support behind President Truman's emergency proclamation but there were grumblings in both party ranks about the action being too long delayed and not going far enough.

Some Democrats and many Republicans complained particularly about the president's failure to immediately order "across the board" wage-price controls. There also were demands for larger armed forces than proposed by Mr. Truman.

Need Full Wage-Price Curbs
Chairman George (D) Ga., of the powerful senate finance committee, charged that without full wage-price curbs "it would be useless to raise taxes." He said inflation would eat up any additional revenue and "leave us in the same relative position we are now" with respect to what the new monies could buy for defense purposes.

Sen. Douglas (D) Ill., said that the nation's military manpower should be raised to six million men by late 1951.

Sen. Morse (R) Ore., said the American people believe Mr. Truman should have ordered "complete economic controls and military mobilization months ago."

Senate Minority Leader Wherry (R) Neb., said the emergency proclamation amounts to "total mobilization" and that "any price controls should be across the board."

"All-Out Curbs"
Senate public works chairman Chavez (D) N. M., also demanded "all-out" price and wage controls because if "conditions are as bad as the president says—and in my opinion they are—this is not the time to quibble."

Sen. Fulbright (D) Ark., said the president's program is "warranted by present conditions" and that "it is time we took the situation seriously and began to strengthen our nation."

Sen. Smith (R) N. J., blamed the present crisis on "the blundering of the administration" which he said "should have realized the situation we are in long ago."

Just Waking Up
Smith complained that "we have been dragging our feet and are just waking up to the danger."

The senator said he believes a pay-as-you-go tax program would be advisable to a certain extent but might become impractical if the budget goes above 100 billion dollars.

Sen. Ives (R) N. Y., demanded that the armed forces be raised to "at least five million men" instead of the 3.5 proposed by Mr. Truman. Ives declared that "if anything, the program he's proposing is too slow. We might as well realize we've got a war on our hands. If we don't we're licked."

Chinese Reds Are Only Seven Miles From Hungnam

Unceasing Attacks Being Made On U. N. Beachhead Area

By LEE FERRERO
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

SEOUL, Dec. 17.—(Sunday)—Pierce Chinese Communist onslaughts forced United Nations abandonment Saturday of Hamhung, last major Allied-held city in North Korea.

The Chinese entered Hamhung, industrial city only six miles north of the beachhead port of Hungnam, Saturday afternoon.

A little more than an hour later a bridge south of the city was blown up, and at last report the main force of the Chinese Communists was seven-and-a-half miles from the dock area of Hungnam.

Further compression of remaining United Nations forces in their northeast Korea toehold came from unceasing attacks by Chinese Reds estimated at seven divisions or more swarming down from the mountainous reservoir section of northeast Korea.

Continue Advance
The Chinese continued to advance through sheer weight of numbers despite heavy air strikes and blasting from the big guns of American warships anchored off Hungnam.

Other Chinese attacks on the 10th Corps flanks were as close as four miles from Hungnam but a spokesman said "the whole situation is being contained."

The South Korean army reported meantime that an enemy force of undetermined strength and nationality had occupied the city of Yonan, nine miles south of the 38th parallel southeast of the Yellow sea port of Haeju.

This enemy force was reported to have crossed the parallel Friday night. Saturday it was said to be midway between Haeju and the communications center of Kaesong, 36 miles from Seoul on one of the two main approaches to the South Korean capital.

Permit Taken By Bell Company

City Issues Permit For $500,000 Building

Although no information was available here today on definite plans regarding the erection of a new building at the corner of South Mercer and South streets by the Bell Telephone company, a permit was issued this morning to the company to construct a $500,000 building on the site, which was purchased several years ago.

The location is on the northwest corner of South Mercer and South streets, almost across the street from the present telephone company building. The site was acquired by the company after the fire, on December 28, 1945, which destroyed the building occupied then by the A. and P. Tea company. A short time later, the telephone company purchased the ground where this building had stood, and the adjoining lot on the corner of Mercer and South streets.

According to the statement made in connection with the securing of the permit at the city engineer's office this morning, construction of a two-story building on the site is contemplated.

Expect Chinese Reds Will Reject 'Cease-Fire' Effort

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 16.—(INS)—The Chinese Communist delegation will make an important announcement this afternoon and this is expected to be a flat rejection of the United Nations request for a cease fire in Korea.

The Peiping group said its announcement, due at 3 p. m. (EST), will be in relation to the Korean War.

Price For Peace
The Chinese Communists refused to make any further disclosure but informed U. N. circles said that their price for peace in the Korean peninsula will comprise the following:

1. Withdrawal of United Nations forces from Korea.
2. Withdrawal of the United States Seventh Fleet from Formosan waters.
3. The ouster of the Chinese Nationalists from the U. N. and the admission of the Peiping government.

Disclosures Made
Disclosure of the impending announcement was made last night after Gen. Wu Hsiu-Chuan, chief Chinese Communist spokesman at the U. N., conferred privately with U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie.

An aide to Gen. Wu later told International News Service that the Communists will offer a full review on all issues pertaining to the Korean conflict and the topics discussed with Lie.

Wu and Lie conferred from 6 p. m. until 7:15 p. m. with the former's aide, Chiao Kuan-Hua, also present.

At the close of their talk Wu asked Lie to summon an extraordinary news conference at Lake Success for this afternoon.

Grove City Area Methodist Group Has Yule Event

Success once more crowned the annual Grove City district Christmas dinner of the Methodist church which took place Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Epworth Methodist church.

Driving over hazardous roads to be on hand for the event, a large assemblage of pastors and their families gathered in the church dining room to partake of giant portions of turkey surrounded by mashed potatoes and peas with plenty of dressing completing the settling to satiate the appetites of the large throng. The dinner was a gift of a prominent Methodist layman who delights in providing the bountiful dinner each year.

Ladies of the Epworth church graciously served the dinner with the aid of several church laymen who poured the coffee. Rev. A. P. Weaver of Grace church in Grove City offered the invocation.

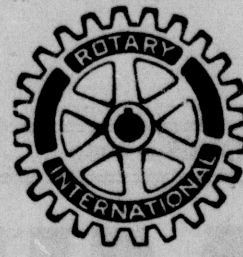

Program Presented

A brief but well-planned program completed the evening, when the group joined in singing familiar Christmas carols led by Dr. Thomas Morris district superintendent, with Mrs. Paul Aley at the piano. Dr. Morris brought brief remarks in which he welcomed the group to the annual event. He in turn introduced the various new pastors who were transferred into the district at the last conference.

Serving as Santa Claus, Rev. Harry L. Johnson of the Edenburg church capably filled the role much to the amusement of the kiddies present. Santa played the drums and provided harmonica music during the course of his appearance. Gifts were presented to all alike, both young and old.

The district fittingly presented Dr. Morris with a fine leather brief case upon which were inscribed his initials. A suitable gift was also presented to Mrs. Morris.

Rev. Paul Aley of the Savannah church was responsible for the general arrangements of the affair, which was conducted in an appropriate setting amid decorated Christmas trees and other yuletide trimmings.

A high defense official said that approximately 800,000 replacements will be inducted each year after 1951 although the "plateau strength" of the armed forces will be reached about the middle of next year.

To supplement manpower needs, the president ordered a commensurate increase in military production of planes, combat vehicles and electronics.

NATION PLACED ON VIRTUAL WAR BASIS

be strengthened "as speedily as possible to the end that we may be able to repel any and all threats" to American security.

The functioning of the giant new defense mobilization agency will be to produce arms for a 3,500,000-man armed force, supervise economic controls, and convert the U. S. into an "arsenal for the defense of freedom."

Price-Wage Controls

The first governmental actions under the new set-up are expected to be price-wage controls on a part of the economy—mostly materials and products needed for the planned rapid expansion of the defense program.

The president called on all citizens of America to make sacrifices and a supreme effort to back up the nation's defense effort.

The presidential proclamation immediately gave the president extraordinary executive powers.

It starts the wheels turning on a gigantic rearming program that will channel the nation's economy to a large extent from production of civilian goods to the weapons, planes, tanks, guns and atomic bombs needed to defend the U. S. and other free nations.

The president said:

Emergency Proclaimed

"Now, therefore, I, Harry S. Truman, president of the United States of America, do proclaim the existence of a national emergency, which requires that the military, naval, and civilian defenses of this country be strengthened as speedily as possible to the end that we may be able to repel any and all threats against our national security and to fulfill our responsibilities in the efforts being made through the United Nations and otherwise to bring about lasting peace."

Mr. Truman expressed confidence that the U. S. "will meet the dangers that confront us with courage and determination, strong in the faith that we can thereby secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our prosperity."

Summon All Citizens

"I summon all citizens to make a united effort for the security and freedom of our beloved country and to place its needs foremost in thought and action that the full moral and material strength of the nation may be ready for the dangers which threaten us."

"I summon our farmers, our workers in industry, and our businessmen to make a mighty production effort to meet the defense requirements of the nation and to this end to eliminate all waste and inefficiency and to subordinate all lesser interests to the common good."

"I summon all state and local leaders and officials to cooperate fully with the military and civilian defense agencies of the United States in the national defense program."

"I summon all citizens to be loyal to the principles upon which our nation is founded, to keep faith with our friends and Allies, and to be firm in our devotion to the peaceful purposes to which the United Nations is given."

Dire Warning Given

The president warned that if Communist imperialism is to go on unchecked, the U. S. could not survive as a free nation.

Mr. Truman declared: "World conquest by Communist imperialism is the goal of the forces of aggression that have been loosed upon the world."

"Recent events in Korea and elsewhere constitute a grave threat to the peace of the world and imperil the efforts of this country and those of the United Nations to prevent aggression and armed conflict."

The increasing menace of the forces of Communist aggression requires that the national defense of the United States be strengthened as speedily as possible."

"If the goal of Communist imperialism were to be achieved, the people of this country would no longer enjoy the full and rich life they have with God's help built for themselves and their children; they would no longer enjoy the blessings of worshiping as they severally choose; the freedom of reading and listening to what they choose; the right of free speech; including the right to criticize their government; the right to choose those who conduct their government; the right to engage freely in collective bargaining; the right to engage freely in their own business enterprises and the many other freedoms and rights which are a part of our way of life."

CHINESE REDS SEVEN MILES FROM HUNGNAM

uniforms similar to those worn by elite troops of China's Red Army apparently were attempting to straddle the main highway between Kaesong and Seoul.

Two-Pronged Attack

There was no confirmation of the South Korean report from the U. S. Eighth Army. Such an enemy movement, combined with a Red thrust in the Chunchon area, eight miles south of the parallel, would pose the threat of a two-pronged attack on Seoul.

Eighth army troops regained earlier positions in the Chunchon area after Communist attacks Friday afternoon had forced them back.

Thousands of Reds were reported moving down from the north toward the Chunchon area, but there were still no confirmed reports that Chinese troops had crossed the parallel.

Communist legions, probably including many Chinese, are swarming down frozen roads and over and through half frozen rivers in the direction of the artificial boundary line which formerly separated Red North Korea and Republican South Korea.

Detailed Summary

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo issued an extraordinarily detailed summary telling of large scale enemy movements south and east from the North Korean capital of Pyongyang.

The summary also disclosed an enemy buildup at Hwachon just above the parallel, sizeable Red forces south of Yonchon and movements toward Kaesong south of the parallel.

Enemy camel trains for the first time were reported moving close to the parallel. MacArthur's headquarters was chary of drawing any conclusions from the sighting of camels so close to the parallel but it is known that only the Chinese have used camels for transport in the Korean war.

Detailing "recent air sightings," the headquarters summary said that enemy troops are moving into Namchonjom, Ichon and Pyongyang in large numbers.

Enemy columns were described as ranging from a few hundred "to as much as five thousand troops in one column." These columns include tanks, ox carts and some camels.

War refugees clogging the Namchonjom-Kaesong road were estimated to number 20,000 persons along with an estimated 250 ox carts. The summary called attention to the fact that the presence of these ox carts was "reminiscent of the practice employed earlier in the war by North Koreans of having supply-laden carts led to the front by civilians or soldiers disguised as such."

A U. S. Eighth army spokesman said that troops of the ROK (Republic of Korea) Fifth Division were still "strongly engaged" with Communist forces in the Chunchon area Saturday morning.

"A settlement is in sight. Get the men back to work right away. The sooner they get back on the job, the better the chances for a good settlement."

Day Of Prayer Designated By Mayor Haven

Mayor John F. Haven stated today he had designated Sunday, December 24, as a day of prayer of all faiths. He has recommended to all rabbis, priests and ministers that, on that day bells be tolled at high noon to call the people to prayer and that, all sanctuaries be kept open throughout the day designated.

He also, as mayor of the city, which is the county seat of Lawrence county, invited all people of all faiths throughout the county to join in the communion of prayer.

He said that at this Christmas season, the hearts and minds of men cannot be merry. With great seriousness, people everywhere contemplate the future and their wonder is how mankind has rejected the good news of the Christ child, the one triumphant message of Peace and Good Will to men.

The mayor said that, from all sides and from people of all faiths "I am receiving calls as the elected leader of this city, to proclaim a Day of Prayer, that this Christmas shall be a religious one when all people shall have the opportunity to join with their neighbors in seeking after God," hence he has designated December 24 as a day of prayer.

No Order To Lift Mail Embargo Has Been Received Here

Postmaster William R. Hanna announced late this morning that no orders have been received at the local post office as yet, lifting the embargo on parcel post matter, and other mail, which was curtailed yesterday, because of the railroad walkout in various large terminals in the country.

However, Mr. Hanna stated, parcel post is being accepted here today for all points, and any parcels received for the districts affected will be held until official orders lifting the order are received.

All cards whether bearing a two-cent or three-cent stamp are also being accepted today, Mr. Hanna stated.

In order to help post office clerks with the sorting of the mail as it is received, Mr. Hanna asks local patrons to separate the mail turned in at the office in bulk, placing local cards and letters in one package and those going out of town in another package. This will save endless time in sorting these out.

Taylor-Stanwyck Marriage On Rocks; Divorce Looming

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 16.—(INS)—Movietown gossip, reputedly able to spot a failing marriage even before the first quarrel, had a batting average of only .500 today.

They were right about Elizabeth (Luscious) Liz Taylor. Everybody seemed to know that she and hotel fortune heir Conrad (Nick) Hilton, Jr., were headed for the rocks in that gilded martial bark of theirs.

But you could have knocked them off the synthetic Christmas trees on Hollywood's Santa Claus lane with a feather when the screen's other famous Taylor, handsome Bob, and Barbara Stanwyck announced yesterday that they, too, were in the market for a divorce.

The Taylor-Stanwyck marriage was supposed to last. The Taylors had been married for 11 years and with the other well-established families, they represented the substantial side of Hollywood. So it was a stunning blow when, through Taylor's studio, M-G-M, the two issued a joint statement which blamed their plight on "professional requirements" which kept them separated "just too often and too long," and went on to say: "Our sincere and continued efforts to maintain our marriage have failed."

The statement was as dignified and almost as formal as an engraved invitation.

The church auditorium will be appropriately decorated for the Yuletide season.

CHAPMAN-MORGAN PLEDGE OF VOWS

Arrangements of ferns, palms, white Chrysanthemums, and lighted candelabra provided an effective setting for the marriage of Miss Elaine Chapman and George W. Morgan in the First Baptist church.

The impressive wedding vows were exchanged by the young couple Friday evening, December 15, at 7:30 o'clock in the presence of a host of relatives and friends. Rev. J. Calvin Rose performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Chapman, R.D. 3, Wilmington road, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hubert Morgan, Maitland Lane.

Approaching the altar with her father, the lovely bride was attired in a ballerina length gown of white lace over heavy slipper satin. The fitted bodice was enhanced by a pet Peter Pan collar, short dolman sleeves, and lace covered buttons edged with slipper satin. Her headpiece was a slipper satin helmet, trimmed with white forget-me-nots, and tiny lace mitts completed the ensemble. She observed the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue and wore a brooch belonging to her great grandmother for something old. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and streamers.

As maid of honor, Miss Phyllis McKenzie wore a ballerina style gown of dusty rose lace over champagne taffeta. Pretty accents were its tiny stand-up collar and three quarter length dolman sleeves with large cuffs. Completing her costume were dark brown shoes, gloves and hat. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow, white and gold mums tied with a dusty rose colored ribbon.

Russell Patterson served the groom as best man, with Jack Rose and John Chapman Jr., as ushers. Mrs. W. H. Luikart played lovely Christmas and wedding selections at the organ preceding the ceremony. She later accompanied Walter Luikart, as he sang "My Hero," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

Two hundred guests were received at the reception in the church social rooms following the wedding ceremony. A centerpiece of pink and white mums graced the bride's table. Aides were Mrs. Yerib, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Jean Landfried, and Mrs. Richard Brundage.

The young couple departed for a honeymoon to an undisclosed destination and will reside in their newly furnished home on the Wilmington road when they return.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan are graduates of the New Castle senior high school. The bride is employed at the Pennsylvania Power company, while her husband, who attended Grove City college, is employed as a salesman for the Morgan Motor company.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

The unique possibility that the next British elections may be fought out on the proper time, place and manner of using the atomic bomb arose today.

Debate in the House of Commons on the aims and achievements of Prime Minister Attlee's recent visit to President Truman displayed a sharp division between the Labor Government and Conservative Party leadership on this issue. Inevitably, it was former Prime Minister Winston Churchill who presented the case for the Tories and opened up a vista of electioneering tactics when the time comes for a new ballot.

Making Mistake
He feels that the Western powers are making a fatal mistake by binding themselves to any promise not to use the atomic bomb unless it is first used against them. There seems little doubt that Churchill was speaking for a large segment of world opinion against a policy prohibiting drastic punitive action toward an aggressor until or unless the offender makes use on its own of the deadliest weapon known.

May Be Key Issue
Unless all-out global war develops, the whole issue of defense and attack may play a major role in British campaigning, and not only because of the Korean crisis. Originally, the conservatives planned to make nationalization the chief election issue.

But this is no longer an effective argument in Britain. Socialization may or may not have brought benefits—critics insist there have been none at all—but the people have been subjugated to government controls for so many years now that they have become an integral part of the national life.

Shrewd Flexibility
And the Labor Government has displayed a shrewd flexibility in several spheres, easing up on regimentation at strategic times and cutting down quite considerably the initial heavy expenditures involved in placing industries and services under government ownership.

Thus with the people keyed to a socialist system, and either comforted or misled by a policy of "cradle to the grave" security,

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

DON'T BE A SLAVE TO YOUR CHILD

Occasionally in this column I have deplored the prevalence of parasites among children of school age and of mothers who make themselves their children's slaves. I've referred to the mother who, like a servant to a monarch, will scurry about to prepare an extra victual for the son or daughter who doesn't like the family meal; to the mother who stands over the washtub and ironing board to launder the adolescent daughter's clothes, discarding the while that she might be scolded for not ironing the garments to the daughter's liking; to the mother who at any time will promptly quit what she is doing to press the trousers of her abode-tied teen-age son.

When this son or daughter is a parent the same mother may be expected to go on slaving for her child, for this child's wife and husband—even for their children as scrubwoman, cook or baby sitter.

In Earlier Years
Many a son or daughter, following divorce, has gone back home to let the mother resume servitude to him or her, probably dumping a child or two into this slave-mother's lap. Nobody knows how many divorces have occurred because the wife or husband had become earlier years a mother for a slave.

You and I know of many an instance in which the married daughter goes with one or more young children to visit a long while with her parents, letting her mother care for the youngsters, especially in the morning, while this daughter sleeps long and late, just as she always did as an adolescent girl at home some years earlier. Nobody writes to condemn this daughter or to sympathize with the slaving mother.

Meddlesome In-Laws
While there are acres of print condemning the few mothers who are meddlesome in-laws and grandparents, there's not a word about the larger number of mothers who have been the slaves of their children and children's families. It's time for someone to come to their defense. But it's more than a matter of human justice; it's also a matter of moral damage to the coming generation, damage to democracy itself.

And all this talk about democracy in the home has been out of balance. Rightly it has emphasized freedom for growing children to share in the family councils and programs. But it has almost totally ignored freedom of the parents. How can there be democracy in any home in which the mother is her children's slave?

But we may say this mother has chosen to be in servitude. She has been prompted in part by the kindness of her heart and submitted, often unawares, to slavery. Perhaps the chief reason she has become her children's slave is the prevailing doctrine of child rearing—that children should not be required to do what they don't want to do. Against this doctrine very little has been spoken or written in recent years, except in this column, in my bulletin, "Teach Your Child To Help at Home" to be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y., and also Mrs. Myers and I devote considerable space to this subject in our new book, "Homes Build Persons".

Atom Bomb May Be British Issue

their imagination is much more likely to be fired by the issue of war or peace.

Even with the best will in the world and the hardest kind of work, the men responsible for defense of Western Europe cannot hope to complete their preparations in a few months.

Basic Decisions Reached
Basic decisions have been reached. But these are largely dependant upon certain political issues and public enthusiasm. The former is clouded and the latter is doubtful.

From the tenor of his Commons speech, it is apparent that Churchill has decided to lead a real drive to shake Western Europe out of its apathy, speed rearmament and present the strongest possible front to world Communism. At one point he said:

"The deterrent effect of atomic bombs is at present almost our sole defense. Its potential use is the only lever by which we can hope to obtain reasonable consideration in our attempt to make a peaceful settlement with Russia."

Would Be Poor Service
"It would be a poor service in the cause of peace to free Russia from all cause for apprehension until they are in every respect ready to strike."

Unless World War III upsets all timetables in its inevitable process of destroying everything, any new British election campaign will develop many interesting and volatile issues. The Laborites can boast that they have ended the necessary Marshall plan aid from the United States. The Conservatives can charge Labor with dismal failure in awakening the British and European people to a real sense of urgency and danger.

And over all will be the black shadow of indescribable horror—the atom bomb.

FEMININE TRAIT

How comes it that a woman sees So many simple things like these: A flower fading and a rug awry Which without notice man walks by?

A wrinkle in a ribbon she will note,
A tiny bit of thread upon a coat.
A book left open where it shouldn't be,
A lamp shade slightly tilted she will see.

No imperfection, however slight
But she will promptly move to set it right
And all the flaws to which a man is blind
A woman, with a single glance, will find.

They Say

LONDON — Prime Minister Attlee: "There is no middle course. We shall not find a solution unless the Chinese show a determination to use negotiations instead of force."

NEW YORK — Gov. Thomas E. Dewey: "There can be no neutrality in this world. We shall be brave and strong and remain free or we shall be timid and weak and become slaves."

NEW YORK — Ambassador to Russia Alan G. Kirk: "I am always protected by four Russian Secret Service men and when one is surrounded like that, is not likely to make people expansive."

WASHINGTON — Sen. Tobey (R) N. H.: "God help the American people if we don't all stick together and support the President in this critical emergency."

State Police Say:

During the recent heavy snows many highways were closed by the unusually heavy fall. As a result many car owners parked their cars along the main roads and walked to their homes, leaving their cars where they interfered with the free movement of snow plows. As a result the snow removal was seriously delayed. This is a violation of the laws and such violations in the future will be vigorously prosecuted.

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

Gen. MacArthur's Long Record

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Next month General Douglas MacArthur will be 71 years old. He will have had a general's rank for 31 years. If he remains in Asia through 1951, he will have spent the past 14 years outside the United States.

This is in every respect a remarkable record. The very fact of MacArthur's towering seniority has complicated the relationship between the Pentagon and the White House in Washington and the supreme commander's headquarters in Tokyo. And it continues to add to the difficulties of a situation that is not likely to grow easier in the months ahead.

The present chief of staff of the army, Lt. Gen. J. Lawton Collins, was a lieutenant when MacArthur was a brigadier general in 1919. Collins had been out of West Point only two years when MacArthur was named superintendent of the Point. MacArthur's serial number in the army is 0-5247.

General Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, was a captain when MacArthur was a brigadier general. Bradley and General Dwight D. Eisenhower were not advanced beyond the rank of major until 1936, a year after General MacArthur had ended his tour of duty as chief of staff of the army.

Seniority Important
In an institution such as the army where seniority is supremely important these facts inevitably color the relationship. To go contrary to the wishes of a field commander whom the front of the army looks up to as having an almost God-like eminence is all but impossible.

There are those in the Pentagon who believe this helps to explain why the fears held in Washington about the large concentration of Chinese Communists in Manchuria and North Korea were not sufficiently impressed on MacArthur. You can hardly tell your former boss he ought to proceed with caution. That seems to imply a doubt in his capacities.

The hope of many, and they include loyal friends of the general, is that MacArthur will ask in the coming year to be relieved of his command. They do not believe, however, that this will happen.

MacArthur might have come home in 1946 or '47 on the kind of hero's acclaim that greeted Eisenhower and Bradley. But he believed it was essential that he direct the American occupation of Japan. As chief of the occupation, MacArthur had a great deal to do with two wise and fortunate decisions. One was to retain the emperor and the other was to exclude Russia from any part of the occupation. Because of the latter decision MacArthur's task was far less of a headache than that which faced General Lucius Clay in Germany.

Might Have Returned
If the offensive which he heretofore with the casual "home by Christmas" remark had succeeded,

Folks Of Fame

Waslaw Nijinsky was born in Kiev, Russia, Feb. 28, 1890. Admitted to the Imperial school in St. Petersburg (now Leningrad), his teacher noted the extraordinary development of his leg muscles and ability to jump. At the school he fairly leaped into fame, some ballet while still a student. He would seem to rise effortlessly, describe a long parabola of flight, and finally descend slowly and lightly.

He made his debut in 1907 in St. Petersburg in Mozart's "Don Juan." "The Specter of the Rose," "Petrovka," and Debussy's "Afternoon of a Fawn" were other famous roles of his. During World War I he was interned in an Austrian prison camp, and soon after he suffered a mental breakdown which caused his confinement. Somewhat recovered he was taken to England, he died April 8, 1950.

The legendary founder of the ancient city of Cathage, Dido was the daughter of a Tyrian king. Her husband having been slain by her brother, she fled to Cyprus, then to Africa, where she bought a piece of land upon which she founded the city. When the former owner of the land sought her hand in marriage, threatening her with war should she refuse, she built a funeral pile, on which she stabbed herself to death. Another story of the cause of her suicide was that she fell in love with the Trojan hero Aeneas, and when he left her, at the command of Jupiter, she destroyed herself. Several tragedies and operas were founded upon the story of this tragic queen.

In Massachusetts they are saying the State Legislature just adjourned is the worst since the 1770's, when all law for the country thereabouts was imported.—"Hartford Courant."

Back To Old Days?

By PAUL GALLICO

If you wonder what kind of a world it is going to be without the automobile and the flying machine, which unmixed blessing is obviously not far away, I can tell you—since I was born at a time when both were in their infancy and experimental stage and hence were rarely seen.

It isn't bad. You don't get around so fast, but it is a lot quieter and life will be far less hazardous. You will not be cut off from all means of transportation, for there still will remain the railroad train and the ocean liner; and for personal movement, the horse, the bicycle and the ball-bearing roller skate.

Saturation Point Of Traffic

I am calling this matter to your attention, for after a brief look around our town, same being the city of New York, it is obvious that the saturation point of traffic has been reached, or will be during this week of Christmas shopping and that it is only a question of time before the same situation will obtain in your community. There will then have to be a Federal law, banning the automobile, the truck and the gasoline-driven vehicle in all its forms, and we will be back where we started over fifty years ago.

The airplane which is being hyped up to faster and faster speeds until it meets itself coming back practically before its starts, will obviously kill itself off and will have to be prohibited as a hallucination and the physical manifestation of an unsound mind and therefore bad for the morale of an honest people. We can then once more look forward to taking a trip somewhere, seeing the scenery as we go and getting a little change and rest.

Will Be Subterfuge

Naturally, when the purchase or possession of an automobile is forbidden by statute there will be bootlegging and subterfuge practiced until the natural indignation of the citizenry against this instrument which is preventing them from getting about in their own cities prevails and new habits are formed. I predict then a great resurgence of the horse. The American has never really abandoned his love for this animal and method of getting about. Not for nothing his adoration of the horse opera.

Well, as I remember, it's great fun going places on horseback. I don't mean just going out for a ride and coming back, but having a destination like dropping in on a distant friend for a visit, or riding down to the beach for a swim. You cannot turn a knob on a horse and get the news or a soap opera, but on the other hand neither are you ever alone when you are aboard him. You are never without a friend and admirer and it is a most comfortable feeling. I was never able to get that from my automobile.

Naturally there will be a terrific stepping up of the bicycle industry since every man, woman and child will have to have one, but somehow I see the automobile industry recoup the losses resulting from the abolition of the motor car by the manufacture and maintenance of roller skates.

Killed Roller Skating

This is a means of getting from one place to another about which I know a great deal since I used this method of locomotion for years in getting to and from Public School 6 on East 85th St. The automobile killed the roller skate because they made the streets too unsafe for skaters. Now that the automobile is killing itself, the skate can continue its natural development which is as a means of rapid transit for adult males and females.

The only place I ever saw that made use of this wonderful aid to locomotion was in the main Western Union office in Chicago. I plant so vast that messengers consumed too much valuable time walking copy from one circuit to another until some genius thought to mount these Mercuries on roller skates. WHIZZ-ZZZZZIP! They were there in seconds.

No more limousines, no more taxicabs, no more station wagons—the business man clamps his rollers to his shoes and goes striding and zooming along the smooth asphalt. His paunch disappears, his muscles become hard and firm, a gleam and sparkle come to his eyes as roses return to his hollow cheeks. On his way to work, he breathes fresh, untainted air instead of the fumes of burned gasoline. Perhaps he stages an impromptu race with his friendly rival from across the street.

Since skating will be a part of his life he will continue his interest in it after hours at clubs where he will cut a fancy figure and waltz with his wife or sweetheart to music. His health and spirits will be toned up and he will live to be ninety.

So you see, there is a silver lining to every cloud. Happy skating! (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

More than one third of the United States population spent more last year than they made, the Federal Reserve Board has reported.

That one-third includes the Government of the United States, of most States, of the majority of cities and towns, me and possibly you.

The preceding sentence is not reported by the Reserve Board. It is from my own findings.

The Board makes two more astoundingly sagacious observations:

(1) The extra spending is done mostly by people in the lower income brackets who get by chiefly on credit and the installment plan.

(2) Families of the top tenth in income pile up more savings than all other families put together.

Something should be done about this, of course.

If this were Russia it would be very simple.

Everybody who did not pay his bills promptly would be shot. Stalin and his gang would confiscate all their property. Shostakovitch would be ordered to write another symphony called "Freedom."

That would be that.

But here it isn't so simple. For some unknown reason we don't like to be shot.

Perhaps it is because there is too much to live for in the United States.

So we'll have to think of something else.

We can't continue going into debt year after year.

That's all right for the Government, but not for us ordinary citizens.

When the Government needs more money it just prints more money or raises our taxes.

Strange to say, what's all right for the Government is a crime for us.

Will 'Dog Ear' Defense Funds

Commissioners Plan To Budget Money

In the 1951 budget the county commissioners will probably "dog ear" a sum of money for use in civil defense.

The three commissioners are agreed that the probability is that civil defense will be an important thing in the coming year and want to be prepared for it.

Said Chairman Harvey B. Bush: "It seems certain the civil defense program will be expanded from what it is at the present time. The county will be expected to share in the work and the expense and we want to be ready for it."

No sum has been suggested as yet. In World War II the commissioners allocated $25,000, only part of which was used.

NO MERRY CHRISTMAS

If you think this Christmas will not be as merry as it might be for you, compare your troubles with a young mother and her family who left New Castle for a town near Boston Friday.

They came to New Castle some time ago when the husband set up a small business. Later he contracted tuberculosis and was taken to a state sanatorium.

There are seven children in the family, the oldest of whom is about 14. On Friday Commissioner and deputy detention and parole officer Donald Dinsmore took the mother and four of the children back to their former Massachusetts home. Three of the youngsters are already there.

SPECIAL POLICE OFFICERS
In World War II many local citizens were commissioned as special police officers. Most of them have forgotten about their commission but they are still special policemen.

Register and Recorder Edward E. McConahy today said he has the commissions on file and they are still in effect.

START PAINT JOB

The first coat of paint is being put on the interior of the new juvenile and detention home and the electric wiring is about done. Shortly equipment and furniture will be moved in and sometime after the first of the year the home will be opened.

SENTENCES TWO

Judge John G. Lamoree sentenced two men on Friday morning, giving one a workhouse sentence and placing the other upon probation. Jerry Copperswait was given five months to the Allegheny county workhouse upon charges of violation of his parole. Upon a charge of aggravated assault and battery he was given five months also but the two sentences will run concurrently. Lee R. Bell, Jr., was placed upon probation for one year upon payment of lying-in expense and $2.50 per week.

COURT MONDAY

The December term of criminal court will open Monday morning with about ten cases scheduled for trial.

The term will be a one-judge affair at least for the first three days. Judge W. Walter Braham has been especially assigned by the state supreme court to try cases in Ebensburg, county seat of Cambria county.

SPECIAL DAY OF PRAYER

World Day Of Prayer Fund Aids Indians

Helping the Indians of our country is one of the worthy projects, aided by the World Day of Prayer fund. Religious activity programs are now conducted in 12 of the 17 government Indian boarding schools in the United States. Plans are being made for placing a religious work director in the new school at Brigham, Utah. Similar work is being done at Eastern Oklahoma A. & M. college.

World Day of Prayer gifts have helped to set up an each-one-teach-one literacy program for teaching adult Navajos to learn to read in their own language as a first step in learning English. This method really works at the Navajo reservations in Arizona and New Mexico.

Part of the World Day of Prayer gifts is used in aiding the Cook Christian Training school, Phoenix, Ariz., where Indians of 55 tribes are preparing to minister to their own people.

Plans are being made for the local observance of the World Day of Prayer in the First Methodist church on Friday, February 9, by the New Castle United Council of Church Women, headed by Mrs. J. F. Rentz.

YOUR OWN MUSIC AT CHRISTMAS

You can surely count on some excellent Christmas music during the coming season, thanks to radio and television. The churches, too, will be presenting oratorios and opportunities for carol singing. But, in addition to all this, you may want some music of your own at the particular time you want to hear it.

And that, of course, is where records come in. Most of us have phonographs and the fine records available these days bring a lot of satisfaction. As the children drop off to sleep, they may enjoy carols recorded by choirs of the best voices or some other favorite Christmas song.

At other times, too, during this Christmas season a home-planned concert of Carols will bring enjoyment as one sits around the fireplace or even close to the steam radiator.

Your local music dealer will let you see catalogues in which carols are recorded. He probably has albums and individual records on hand from which you may select.

Here are a few good albums: Christmas Carols of Many Lands. Vienna Boys' Choir (Victor). Christmas Carols. Alexander D. Richardson, organist (Victor). Carols of the English Yuletide. Victor Chapel Choir. Carols for Christmas Eve. Victor Choir.

ETERNAL LIGHT
BLOOMFIELD, N. J.—(INS)—Theoretically, a light bulb could be designed which would burn continuously for a thousand years, engineers say. But it would be useless for lighting purposes since it would probably give less illumination than a firefly.

Around Hollywood

By JAMES PADGITT
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 16.—A feminine start should never become too dignified to show her legs. Ginger Rogers goes a step further and claims it is smart to remind the customers occasionally that a gal has shapely gams.

Ginger sees to it that the Rogers limbs steal at least one scene in each of her movies. In her current, Warner Bros. "Storm Warning," she gives a long look at her stockings and adjusts their seams.

Nice Equipment
Ginger won her first fame as a dancer and knows that legs are standard equipment for a gal performer, and should never be overlooked as an asset to acting.

"It was a natural scene to show a leg in 'Storm Warning,'" said Ginger. "I am supposed to be alone in the house and sort of lured."

Forestry Shows No Socialism Trend

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—A noted educator says that "whatever the tendency may be in other fields"—there is no trend toward socialism in forestry.

Samuel T. Dana, dean of the school of natural resources, University of Michigan, told the 50th anniversary of the Society of American Foresters that the trend in forestry has been away from government centralization, and added:

"Such control as is exercised in grants in aid is not onerous and is generally recognized as salutary rather than otherwise. State and private initiative are growing steadily. It is hard to detect any trend toward socialism, or any likelihood that such a trend will develop."

Dana says that forest research and management as practiced now—days can "assure the nation a continued supply of forest raw materials" despite the fact that the original huge supply of forest raw materials and the virgin forests "are nearly exhausted."

He says the big problem for forest managers today is to stimulate greater interest for better forest conservation by farmers and small land owners.

Another spokesman at the convention said that although 90 per cent of the American forests are under fire protection, there has been very little done about wiping out forest insects and diseases.

Dry Cleaners Given Pay Raise

Five cents per hour "across the board" has been granted to dry cleaners of three local dry cleaning plants, Smith's, Britton's and the Lawrence Laundry Company.

Ray Myers, of Cleveland, O., business agent for the local unit of the Dry Cleaners' Union said today contracts had been signed by the companies and the union giving each employee inside the plant five cents per hour. The contract covers only employees who work inside the plants.

Owing to their sturdy legs, animals have been known to stand for some time after dying.

Farm Report Due Monday

Large Harvests To Be Shown By Report

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—Uncle Sam adds up farmers' production accomplishments on Monday.

The Agriculture Department's annual summary of crop production—scheduled for publication December 18—is expected to verify earlier reports that the nation's farmers produced the fourth greatest annual volume of crops in history.

The November crop report forecasted the total volume of crops so large that it is only topped by production in 1946, 1948 and 1949.

The tremendous output this year—coming at a crucial period in the nation's history—was led off by record crops of soybeans, sorghum grain and sugar beets.

Other large harvests this year—putting a lot of weight on the total output volume—are corn, estimated last month at three billion, 105 million bushels; oats, one billion, 484 million bushels; flaxseed, 35 million bushels; potatoes, 431 million bushels; tobacco, two billion pounds of hay, 107 million tons.

Those crops are not records, but they are above average.

The one big disappointment this year, in view of the world crisis, is cotton. That crop is estimated at only nine million, 844 thousand bales, compared with 1949's 16 million bale crop.

But the blame for the smaller crop, it is said, belongs with the government, which ordered cut-backs in plantings last year causing some confusion among cotton growers. Weather and insects did their part too in shrinking the cotton crop in 1950.

The Production and Marketing Administration says that feed markets during the past week.

The stronger market position of feeds came in response to more active demand caused by wintry weather in northern and eastern areas, higher grain prices, and stronger markets for dairy and poultry products.

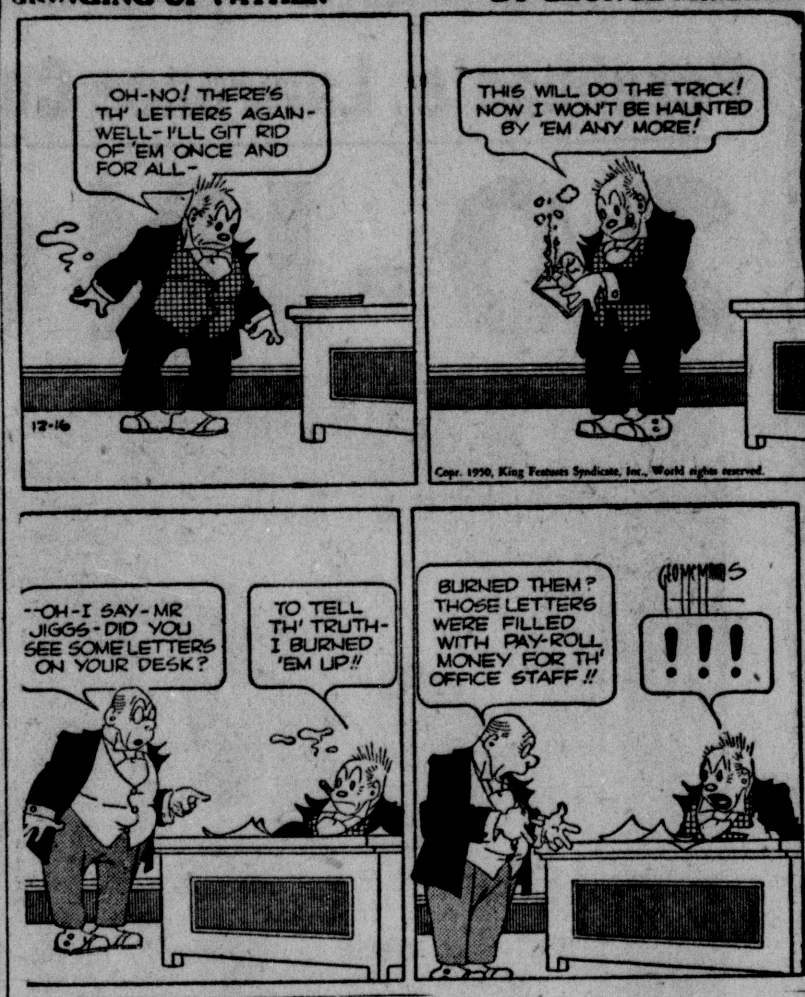

The index of wholesale feedstuff prices advanced nearly four points to 232.3 while the feed grain index went up more than five points to 230.8. Wheat millfeeds advanced $1 to $2.50 a ton while corn by product feeds were up 75 cents to $3 a ton.

The Agriculture Department is expected to announce preliminary results of the peanut marketing quota referendum today.

An official says that the returns are almost complete on farmers' voting to determine whether they want marketing quotas for the 1951, 1952 and 1953 crops.

The department has set the 1951 marketing quota at 650,000 tons for peanuts, and a national allotment of one million, 711 thousand acres.

Other Nations Need To Be Brought Into Communism Battle

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(INS)—Sen. Lodge (R) Mass., a delegate to the United Nations, urged Friday that the United States bring Germany, Japan, Ireland and Spain into the fight against Communism.

Lodge also said in a Senate speech that attention should be concentrated on saving the Ruhr from Russian aggression. Declaring that "there is not time to lose" in making use of manpower of other nations, he said:

"We have had two Pearl Harbors and still there are those who are not awake. We must stop stumbling around on the threshold of disaster."

The Senator emphasized that Russia since 1945 has been using "puppets and satellites to do its fighting" and work behind the lines.

America, he said, "must meet this new threat with as much imagination and as much willingness to use new methods as the Soviets do."

Lodge declared:

"It means integrating into the defense against Communist imperialism the former enemy nations Germany and Japan. It means removing the obstacles which now exist to the participation of the former neutrals—Ireland and Spain—in means immediate and formation of military units composed of stateless anti-Communist Slavs. These measures should all be taken at once."

F.T.A. Club Holds Discussion Meeting

The regular meeting of the Future Teachers of America was held Thursday, December 14, in the senior high school. In the absence of the president, Lucy De-Valencia, the meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Imelda MacNamara.

The program was planned by Pat Bush and based on several magazine articles. Those who spoke to the group were Virginia Rogers, Audrey Jackson, Judy Smith, Ronald Gilmore and Pat Bush.

The meeting was then turned into an open discussion, with Pat Bush as moderator. The club discussed problems of the teaching profession.

Donald Mitchell died four hours after he was admitted to Community hospital in Kane where his two step-sisters, Twila, 10, and Lulu, 16, are in critical condition. The father, George Hulings, also was severely burned and confined to the hospital.

Two boards at the Hulings' home, Anthony Walters, 60, and James Mohney, 20, and a 14-year-old son of Hulings were treated for burns suffered while aiding in rescue work.

Firemen believe the blaze was started by a defective extension cord which extended from the first floor to the attic.

McKinney Bible Class Dinner

Dedicate Organ To Memory Of Founder

Members of the McKinney Bible class, of the First Presbyterian church, and their families enjoyed the annual turkey dinner of the class, which was held Friday evening in the church dining room.

Highlight of the evening's program was the dedication of a new Hammond organ, which was purchased by the members of the class and their friends, as a memorial to the late Robert McKinney, founder of the class. It will be used by the class for their services in the classroom and for touring the outlying churches in the class' programs.

Robert McKinney White, the present teacher of the class, gave some interesting facts on the life of Mr. McKinney.

Dedicates Organ
Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, the pastor, formally dedicated the organ to the service of the class, and it was unveiled by Robert McKinney Allen, Mr. McKinney's great grandson. Following the unveiling, Delbert Fletcher sang, "When they ring those golden bells," a favorite hymn of Mr. McKinney. He also sang, "I Wonder as I Wander."

Marilyn Mikels and Constance Branstetter played the Waltz from the Arensky suite on two pianos, Ernel E. Branstetter, joining them on the new organ. The trio then played "The Waltz of the Flowers," "Nut Cracker Suite," and selections from The Student Prince. Miss Branstetter also played "Berceuse," by Jarnfelt on the organ. Mr. Branstetter then closed with a medley of Christmas carols, demonstrating the beautiful tone of the organ.

WHY VACCINATE?

Any one who has seen a case of small pox hold up your hand. There do not seem to be any hands up. Then why vaccinate?

The reason is that little old small pox is always just around the corner. Just let us get the least bit careless about vaccination and—bang—some one gets measles or mumps! and in a couple of days the doctor finds a smallpox patient. Then every one in the neighborhood rushes to get vaccinated whether they need it or not.

Pretty soon the excitement dies down and we have the question again.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERP

Van Chandler, son of an old country dentist in a frontier town, recalls the day the mayor came in to get a tooth filled. He was resplendent in striped pants, a frock coat, and a standing collar with gold collar buttons front and back. Doc Chandler stepped on his foot pedal and began drilling away. When he finally let the mayor up for air, he examined his drill and exclaimed, "Mr. Mayor, you told me you never had a tooth filled before. How come there's gold on the point of my drill?"

"You darn fool," said His Honor bitterly, "that's not gold from a tooth. You just hit my back collar button."

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATTLE

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—(INS)—The wedding-gown of today must be a wedding of plushness with practicality.

The days of one-shot ivory satin are growing short. And brides are entering the era of formal church-wedding attire that unzips, buttons or snaps into a dinner, cocktail or ball gown.

Newest of the convertible gowns, shown in New York today, comes in three pieces: a bouffant, bare-shouldered white lace dress, that reaches to mid-calf length; a high-necked, long-sleeved jacket that meets church requirements for cover up; and a double row of net "dust ruffles" that flare to the floor under the white lace skirt.

With the ruffles snapped off, the frock is street-length and styled for cocktails or dinner. With the ruffles and jacket both off, it's a frock for informal dancing. And with the jacket off, but the ruffles on, it's a gala ball gown.

"The bride who gets it," says the designer, "will be wed with wisdom!"

Automobile Prices Expected To Be Frozen For 'The Duration'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—Automobile prices are expected to be frozen for "the duration" today as one of the first of President Truman's promised price and wage controls to ready the nation's economy for the growing threat of war.

Mr. Truman told the country last night that price controls will be imposed "at once" on many materials and products vital to national defense and affecting the cost of living.

Roll-backs in prices, he said, will be made where necessary and wage controls in many cases will go hand-in-hand with the price freezes.

Trapped Miner Rescued Alive

Survives 54 Hours In Cave-In Trap

SELLECK, Wash., Dec. 16 — (INS)—A coal miner who survived 54 hours and 25 minutes in a cave-in trap 400 feet below ground today credited three heavy tunnel support posts with saving his life and his wife, near collapse, vowed he will never enter another mine.

Fifty-four-year-old John Woltz of Kent, Wash., cheated death in a mine for the third time when rescue workers pulled him out last night.

He is in fair condition at the Enumclaw Hospital with a crushed left arm and broken leg suffered in the collapse of a shaft in the big 4 mine 25 miles southeast of Selleck last Wednesday.

From his hospital bed Woltz said:

"My arm was over a heavy post. Another post was on my back. Another was under my face. I guess these posts saved my life."

The plucky miner said he was trapped while his three companions escaped because of his return to get a pulley. He added that he knew the tunnel would soon collapse.

"It poured down and I ran. A timber blocked the way and I saw I couldn't make it. So I got in as close as I could to a post."

After hours of darkness the buried miner thought he heard voices and "yelled" to maintain his courage and in the hope rescuers would hear him.

Hours later, Woltz said he "kind of gave up. I didn't think I could make it. I passed out. Then I came to and heard more voices. I yelled and talked to them. They heard me this time."

Woltz's wife was near collapse when weary rescuers sent word they had found her husband alive.

During the two hours the miner was in sight of the frantically digging rescuers before he was freed Woltz kept asking for his wife repeatedly.

War Emergencies May Cause Curtailments

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 16.—(INS)—Curtailment of Pennsylvania highway construction program was forecast Friday if war-created emergencies should necessitate drastic manpower and materials control.

State Highway Secretary Ray F. Smock told members of the Associated Pennsylvania Constructors meeting at Atlantic City that the State's road program is beset by three problems:

(1) The Korean War and upset international conditions, (2) Financial difficulties, and (3) Difficulty in obtaining qualified top-level highway personnel.

"Excellent progress has been made since the end of the war in repairing and rebuilding our facilities," he explained, "but a repetition of the neglect of that period at this time may result in complete destruction of thousands of miles of our already over-stressed highways."

No Interference Yet
Smock said current conditions, while causing delays and dislocations on individual projects, have not as yet interfered with the schedule of the department's overall program.

"If present emergencies become more acute and drastic controls of manpower and materials are invoked and enforced, our program will be curtailed and possibly discontinued," Smock declared.

Smock said "courageous action" will be required of the State's legislative and executive branches to provide funds "so that an adequate construction program may be developed which will fit in with the ability and willingness of the highway users to pay the bill."

It is also becoming increasingly difficult to attract and keep young engineers in commonwealth service, he said.

"A large number of our key employees in the central office and in the districts are advancing in years and replacements with the necessary education and experience qualifications are not being received and trained as rapidly as necessary to continue and improve the development of our organization."

To Present Pageant At Second U.P. Church

Eighth annual Christmas pageant will be given at the Second United Presbyterian church Sunday at 7:45 p.m. This pageant has grown in popular appeal, and each year the church is filled to capacity.

The pageant is entitled "Thy Light Shined." It speaks of the coming of the Light of the World and of the radiance of that Light as it has been carried throughout the world. By means of scenes, portraying Biblical characters and Christian leaders in all ages, the story will unfold. The program will conclude with a candlelight service.

A special feature will be the eight carolers who will introduce the pageant and sing carols from the porch of the church. The porch will be lighted and made attractive with a shepherd scene. The characters for this scene have been made and painted by a group of artists in the church.

This service is made possible by the cooperation of a large number of individuals and organized classes in the Bible school. It is under the direction of Mrs. James VanGorder and Miss Marion Campbell.

Jameson Choir To Sing At First U.P.

Jameson Memorial Nurses choir of the Jameson hospital will present several numbers of sacred music at the First United Presbyterian church, Sunday evening, December 17, at 8 o'clock. The chorus is directed by David W. Rees who is also choir director at First church.

The service will be one of sacred Christmas music and an old-fashioned carol sing. Several of the church's organizations will be present in groups to sing special numbers and share together in the service. The Youth club chorus, under the direction of Miss Joan Polley, will make their first public appearance in their new choir robes. The Men's club of the church and the Youth Fellowship groups will also be present to represent their organizations with special numbers.

MAKE IT MERRY CHRISTMAS, BUT MAKE IT A SAFE ONE

There is nothing merry about a Christmas season when accidents occur.

A Merry Christmas is a safe Christmas. Let's make it safe. Safe for pedestrians, safe for other drivers, safe for shoppers, safe for children. And thus, make it safe for ourselves.

You don't make safe drivers by law. Safe driving comes from good sense and judgment, and a regard for others, all of which are personal attributes.

Drive this Christmas season as though you were personally responsible for the safety of every citizen in the county.

Hurricane Cagers Top Meadville 45-37 For Third Straight Win

New Castle Hi Stands Off Bulldog While Continuing Winning Streak

New Castle's 45-37 victory over Meadville last night at the Junior High school gym, was hardly indicative of the manner in which the Canes controlled the play.

The Bulldogs were kept at arm's length throughout almost the entire contest, and although forward Bob Davis shouldered the Meadville burden personally to tie the score in the third period, the outcome was never in doubt.

Will Play Away Tuesday

New Castle put win number three on the tally sheet last night. However the Canes have had the advantage of the home court in all contests and will journey to New Brighton Tuesday night for their first away battle.

For the third consecutive game, the New Castle cagers opened the scoring. Joe Marinelli rang the bell with a layup shot, but a foul by Bob Bossard and a fielder by Waitz pushed the Bulldogs into the lead. Dave Kiser and Ray Latsko traded two pointers and the scoring continued evenly. Vitale's out shot tied the game at 10 for the period's end.

Poor Shooting

The second quarter produced nightmarish shooting from both clubs. New Castle hitting from the field on but one of 20 tries, and Meadville on one of 10. Bill Boak's six successful free throws stood off the Bulldogs for the quarter, as New Castle moved to the front at halftime, 20-13. Meadville scored three points this period.

Bill Davis, lanky forward, took the Bulldog by the collar and engineered a mid-third period drive that knotted the score at 23. However, contortionist Joe Marinelli, layed up three successful driving shots to push the Bulldogs arrears once again. New Castle led at the quarter 31-24.

Marinelli and Davis carried their scoring feuds into the final stanza as each player racked up seven points. The New Castle center also contributed the pass of the game, when he faked a hook shot and set up Palumbo for a two pointer at the beginning of the fourth quarter.

Lax Defenses

Both team's man-to-man defenses grew lax in the final moments of play and as a result the scoring for the period was greatest for each club.

Temper flared in an under the basket skirmish near the contest's close, and John Sansone was given the heave ho with 63 seconds remaining.

Cane marksmanship last night was below average, and gave off an ominous glare in the second period, when the local cagers missed on 19 of 20 shots. The Meadville lack of polish was offset by three giants, Bossard,

Boosters Surprise K. Pulaski, Win 72-45

The East Brook Boosters surprised K. Pulaski last night by winning handily 72-45, at the Booster floor.

Morrow, Wright, and Jameson, stuffed in 50 points, enough to claim the victory.

K. Pulaski stayed within striking distance until the final quarter when East Brook ran wild with 27 points.

The Boosters were defeated by Westinghouse Electric last Tuesday as Sharon St. Johns, 45-37.

New Wilmington Loses To Fredonia

New Wilmington high school ran into last year's class C champions and 6 foot 5 inch center Charlie Craig Friday night at Fredonia and came out on the short end of a 55-29 score.

The Fredonia team, paced by Craig with 31 points, started out early and held a commanding lead throughout the game. Walt McGinnis was high for the Greyhounds with 15 points.

The New Wilmington JV's notched a 22-16 win in the preliminary with Klumph, Howard and King flipping in six points apiece.

State Capitol Blind Alley Is Encountered

Senate Campaign
Probe Is Slowed

HARRISBURG, Dec. 16.—(INS)—The Senate Campaign Committee's investigation of alleged excessive expenditures by Pennsylvania's Republicans during the primary campaign appears to have run into a blind alley. The committee, headed by Iowa Senator Guy Gillette, a Democrat, is charged mainly with scrutinizing election expenditures which may be in violation of federal law. Members of Gillette's staff headed by Fielding Wright, Jr., son of Mississippi's governor, arrived with much fanfare at Harrisburg in mid-summer to gather expense reports filed with the State Elections Bureau. A few weeks later, the investigation cooled and nothing was heard for about two months. Several weeks ago, at Gillette's request, Commonwealth Secretary Gene Smith forwarded the expense reports to Washington but nothing has resulted although the Iowa lawmaker promises a summary of his findings to be released in February. Persons close to U. S. Senator-elect James H. Duff said the outgoing governor will blast the probe as nothing more than a political move to discredit him before he reaches Washington.

One of the Pennsylvania Turnpike's idea men dreamed up a novel Christmas promotion for the super-highway. To select group throughout the state, the PTC sent a pass card for a trip on the turnpike the day of December 19. Turnpike brass, no shrinking violets about their charge, had printed on the ticket in bright red letters: "Good for one joyous trip to the land of holiday cheer."

Trimming of the giant Christmas tree in the rotunda of the capitol building has touched off the traditional practice of state employees erecting and decorating smaller Yule trees in each office. But the huge tree in the rotunda remains the showpiece for visitors. The short-needle pine which stands about 20 feet was brought in from Greenwood Furnace State Park in Huntingdon county. The Forests and Waters Department had the tree cut and shipped and the Property and Supplies Department erected and is trimming it. The tree was one of several hundred blown down by the fierce storm which swept Pennsylvania Thanksgiving weekend. The annual tree-lighting ceremonies will be held at noon December 18 with Mrs. James H. Duff, wife of the governor, throwing the switch. The governor and some members of his cabinet usually make short remarks during the program.

Since 1947, the State Civil Service Commission has administered examinations to 104,738 applicants for jobs with 11 state agencies. In that time, according to SCSC Director Howell M. Becht, the commission conducted 32 separate testing programs. Becht said the tests were given for 192 job classifications.

SHOWERS AT BRIDE'S HOUSE
"One of my daughter's friends is going to give her a bridal shower. Since this friend lives a great distance from her and the guests live close to us, we would like to have the shower at our home if this is correct. Also, as the bride will be married in a suit and only immediate members of both families will be present, must we send out invitations?"

Answer: She may correctly have her shower in your house. She should, however, send out invitations in her name. You may issue verbal invitations to members of your family and the groom's family, inasmuch as they only will be invited.

Question: When may the groom's parents leave their son's wedding reception?

Answer: Any of the guests may leave the wedding reception at any time after the bride and the groom have left for their wedding tour.

Question: When there is no host at dinner and the hostess has put the woman of most importance at the end of the table opposite her, how should service proceed?

Answer: The woman at the opposite end of the table is usually served first and service then proceeds to the left. It may alternate to the left at one course; to the right at the next course, so that the same person will not be served last.

Question: I have some small forks which are supposed to be used for salad. Have they any other use?

Answer: They are also used for dessert—pie and cake.
